OPEN CALL – LINK AND PIN GALLERY, E. 6th Street, Austin, TX

Link and Pin Gallery is currently seeking artists for an upcoming exhibition exploring the darkness and isolation of sex-trafficking. These works will accompany the 3-D installation, “Artifacts of Human Trafficking” by Austin artist Amie Stone King, which opens the first week of January 2018.

Artists may submit CV & work to: info@linkandpinart.com with “Artifacts Submission” in the subject line. Deadline: October 20, 2017.

For questions, please call the gallery at 512 900-8952 or email Amie at info@amiestoneking.com.

For this exhibition exploring the desperation, isolation and deceit of the sex trafficking industry in the United States, we are looking for artists who are willing to create images that embody representations of the personal, physical, emotional and spiritual toll this modern-day slavery takes on those who are caught in its grasp.

2-D works in all mediums are welcome, no larger than 36” x 48”.
